Among the early pioneers of . Salem, Pa., are Greenhill , Mercer, Pa. His wife, Mrs. Daniel Lingers 1870. Mr. other his eldest son married with 1878, Lautzenrisers, 1890 others, and Marple's p., etc. Salem, Pennsylv. in 1860. All the other residents of the town returned with their families in 1797-1800.

The following not listed in the YECF history are:

Maria Elizabeth, born 7 May 1784; baptized 20 June 1784 by Rev. John Weber, pastor of Harold's Reformed Church; sponsors were Peter Klingensmith and wife Maria Elizabeth listed as grandparents. NOTE: This may be the same who married Jacob Loutzenhiser except some Klingensmith records say Maria Elizabeth married John George Meyer.

_____, born 31 May 1781; also baptized by Rev. John Weber, of Harold's Reformed Church; given Barbara I. _____.

John _____, born 3 Apr. 1794; also baptized by Rev. John Weber, of Harold's Reformed Church; given _____.

_____, (born) Daniel Klingensmith, is on the 1790 census list as a free man, Westmoreland, Pa. In the 1790 census of Pennsylvania, Daniel Klingensmith of township _____ in Bedford Co., Pa., with wife Daniel Klingensmith as his wife. He has 3 sons under sixteen and 4 daughters, which would make the children listed in the YECF history, and discredit the assumption that Mary and Maria Elizabeth are ~~not~~ the same person. Daniel Klingensmith was born after the 1790 census as the children have been listed. In 1790 Daniel Klingensmith was living in Brush Creek, Westmoreland, Pa., which accounts for the question of where the last child was born.

It is alleged by some that Daniel Klingensmith married _____, sister to Jacob Sommer Jr., of Mercer County, Pa. If this is correct she would no doubt have been his second wife and not the mother of his children all born in Westmoreland County, with the exception of Peter. The Sommer family were from Maryland, Jacob Sommer, being born and raised there, and migrating to Mercer County, Pa., in 1809. At the time he went to Mercer County directly from Maryland, with his second wife and children and his younger children. The older Sommer son remained in Maryland joining his father later. Just when Jacob's sister went to Mercer County, is not known by the writer.

It is the assumption of many that Daniel Klingensmith, the first recorded ancestor in 1738, is the progenitor of all the Sommer and Klingensmith families. Before the first of the summer of 1738, Daniel Klingensmith first came to America in 1676, being born in _____.

During a religious crusade by Louis XIV, of France, Daniel Klingensmith, with his two daughters were brutally treated in 1676, and fled to the Netherlands with his two daughters. They fled to the Netherlands, where they settled in _____, arriving in Philadelphia the same year where he settled as a bell-ringer. Joseph Klingensmith Jr. married and had his children, a son George, who with his family lived at Pottsville,
